2. Materials and manufacture

The synthetic and natural materials used, as well as the manufacturing processes, have been selected with regard to the requirements of European technical standards concerning safety, ergonomics, comfort, durability and product health safety.

3. Limitations of use

The protective shorts are intended exclusively for motorcycle sports activities and must not be used for purposes other than those for which they were designed.

Changes in environmental conditions, especially temperature and humidity, may affect the protective properties of the product. Any modifications to the product, changes to its original design or improper use may reduce its protective function.

Use the protective shorts only for their intended purpose and in accordance with these instructions. Do not modify the product in any way.

4. Inspection before use

Before each use, check that the product is complete, undamaged and in good technical condition. Pay particular attention to the following:

- condition of the protective elements and their fastening
- seams and textile parts

If you find cracks, split seams or damaged parts, do not use the product.

The protector provides the declared level of protection only if it is undamaged, retains its original properties and is correctly fitted. If it is damaged or you have doubts about its functionality, stop using it and replace it with a new one. The level of protection is maintained for as long as the protector retains its original properties.

5. Laboratory testing and level of protection

According to the manufacturer's information, the product has been laboratory tested in accordance with the requirements of the following standards:

- EN 1621-1:2012
- EN 14021:2003

6. Selecting the correct size

Choose a size appropriate for the user's body. The protector must fit snugly against the body without being too tight or restricting movement while riding.

7. How to put on the protective shorts

The protective shorts with integrated protectors can be worn directly against the skin or over underwear. Choose the way of wearing them that suits you, and before riding check that the protectors are correctly positioned and remain in place.

The shorts must always be correctly fitted and secured to provide the declared protection.

8. Care, maintenance and storage

After use, allow the shorts to dry at room temperature in a well-ventilated place. Do not tumble-dry them or dry them near radiators or other sources of heat.

If soiled, remove dirt with a damp cloth. Do not wash the shorts under running water, do not use chemicals for cleaning and do not dye the product.

Store the shorts in a dry, well-ventilated place. Protect them during storage from direct sunlight, prolonged exposure to excessively high or low temperatures, and excessive loads or deformation. Disinfect using a disinfectant spray intended for sports and motorcycle equipment.

Check the condition of the product regularly. If it is damaged, deformed or you have doubts about its protective properties, stop using it and replace it with a new one.

9. Disposal

At the end of the product's service life, dispose of it in accordance with local waste disposal regulations.

Keep the packaging out of reach of children to prevent the risk of suffocation.
